BEARING IT ALL

IN DEDICATION TO: BRIAN "PSYCHO" RICHARDS

"Those of us who shared Brian's life can remember the brightness of a golden-haired little boy, the shining brilliance of countless afternoons on the playing fields, the happy shades of so many dear friends, and the amber glow of young love.

Do not judge Brian's life by the dark time when he left us, but rather by the brightness that he brought to each of us while his thread was intertwined with our own."

Office of the President

508/697-1201

February 8, 1994

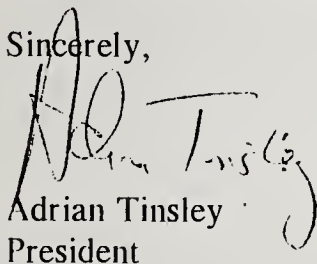

Dear Members of the Class of 1994:

Within the pages of this yearbook are captured in words and photographs memories of an important period in the life of the college and your own life as well. When this class entered Bridgewater in the fall of 1990, we were about to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the college's founding. That next summer, we received the news of a $10 million federal grant to build an educational technology center on campus. Now, as this class prepares to graduate, construction is set to begin on the "John Joseph Moakley Center for Technological Applications." When you return as alumni, as we want you to do often, you can visit the Moakley Center to see in person its impact on improving public education.

On the personal side, I hope your years at Bridgewater were full of interesting experiences, enlightening people, and opportunities to grow in an environment you found stimulating and welcoming. This yearbook will help remind you of the college and the friendships you made while a student here. It is the special nature of such publications that they are timeless to those who were part of the years they profile. No matter when you look at this book, nor how frequently you turn to it, there will always be something new to see -- a face, an event, a particular place -- that somehow touched your life.

I wish you good luck and Godspeed in your endeavors beyond Bridgewater. May this yearbook be a companion to accompany you wherever you go.

Sincerely,

Adrian Tinsley
President

YEAR — IN — REVIEW

Bill and Hillary Clinton celebrated as he became the first Democratic President in the White House in twelve years.

The U.S. as a whole experienced the toughest winter in years. Area snowfall totalled over seven feet.

LA itself had a terrible year. A major earthquake added catastrophe to problems that included riots, forest fires, and mud slides.

Families waited anxiously all across the US for our troops to return from Somalia.

Famine relief efforts continued in Bosnia throughout the year.

LA riots protesting police abuse continued for days after the Rodney King beating case in which the accused officers were determined not guilty.

Special thanks to Linda Iannalfo of the Eagle Tribune for all her help in supplying the photos for our Year in Review section.

UNFORGETTABLES;

Actor John Candy died in his sleep at age 42. David Koresh and his Branch Dividians committed mass suicide after a three day standoff with ATF troops in Waco, Texas. Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill died and was laid in state at the Boston State House. Tonya Harding was accused of involvement in the attack on Nancy Kerrigan. Nancy Kerrigan brought home the silver Olympic medal in Women's Figure Skating.

Bridgewater State College was under tight security as State Police and Corrections Officers searched for two escaped convicts from Bridgewater State Prison. Photo by Kevin J. Fachetti, The Enterprise of Brockton. Special thanks to John Hoey.

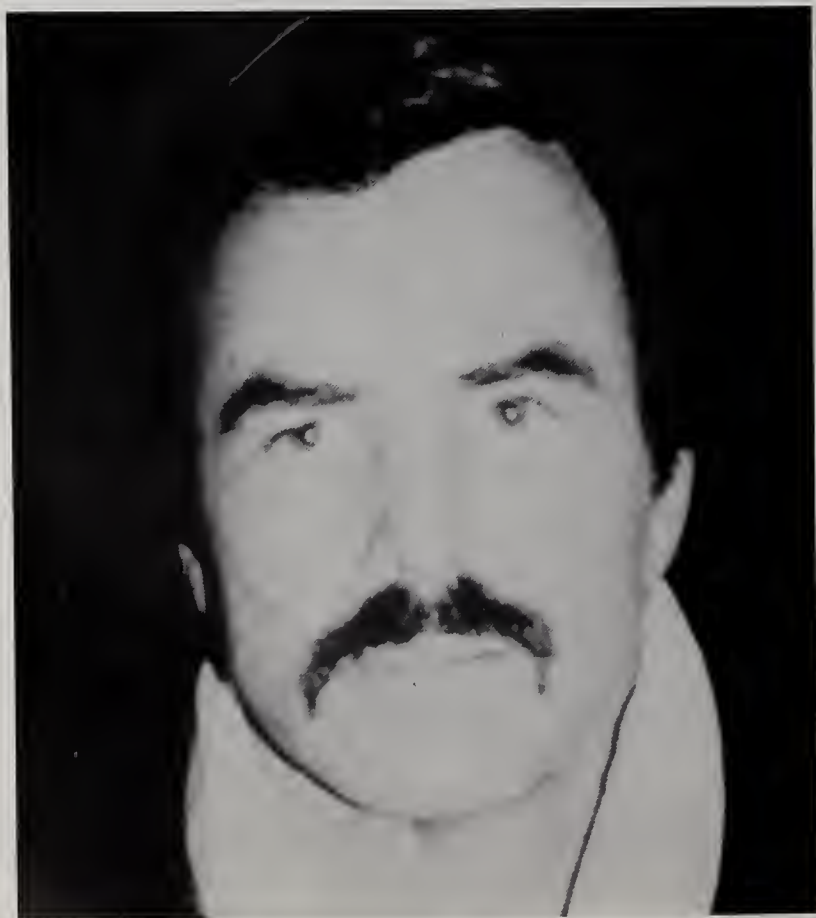

The divorce of Burt Reynolds and Loni Anderson was the most publicized divorce of the year.

Home Improvement starring Tim Allen was the most popular half hour sitcom on TV.

Michael Jackson was accused of sexually molesting a young boy. He allegedly paid the boy millions of dollars not to testify in court.

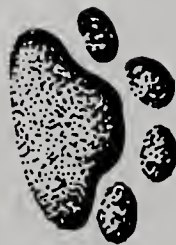

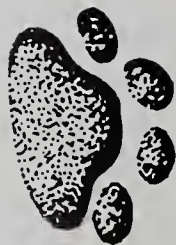

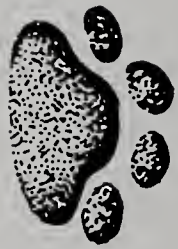

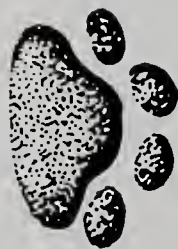

Kings of Late Night David Letterman and Jay Leno.

90210 still reigned as the most popular show on the BSC campus. The cast finally graduated high school.

Melrose Place gave 90210 a run for their money in terms of on campus popularity.

Since the beginning of the 1993 Fall Semester, the Yearbook Staff has had one goal in mind — to complete the 1994 Yearbook. Well, here it is. And I want to take this opportunity to tell the staff what a great job they've done. You've all been wonderful to work with and I'm sorry it has come to a close. You've made my first year as Editor-in-Chief a memorable experience and you will always have a special place in my heart.

I'd also like to thank Dr. Roger Dunn for all his help as our advisor. It's been a pleasure working with you these past three years. Thank you for everything.

Good luck to the Class of 1994 and always remember your friends and experiences at Bridgewater State. Bringing your memories with you as you head out into unknown adventures will bring you a sense of security you will cherish for years to come.

Remembrance

Freshman orientation, June 1990.

As the car made its way through the
Shaded tunnel of abounding maples,
I gazed out the window, amazed at the
Colossal brick superstructure with the white colonnades.
I felt horrified, yearning to go home even
Before the car came to a stop, yet at the same time
I was excited, not ever wanting to leave.
As I sat in the Campus Center Auditorium,
I thought how astronomical it was.
I peered in awe at the five hundred or so
Strangers who surrounded me: so diverse and unfamiliar.
As I walked across campus, I worried that I was Going to get lost on this vast plot of land and
Felt that Shea/Durgin was far away, in another world.
I remember not yet being a high school graduate, and
Feeling as though I would never graduate from college.
It all seemed so far away.

Convocation, October 1993.

As I sat in the auditorium, in almost the same chair
I had occupied three and a half years earlier,
I closed my eyes and retraced my steps of orientation.
When I opened my eyes,
I realized the auditorium wasn't so big.
I glanced at the faces around me, recognizing many as
Friends and acquaintances, not the strangers
I had seen that first time I sat there.
I thought of Boyden Hall as just
Another building on this not-so-large campus
And of the "Hill" as not-so-far a walk.
As I sat there, listening
Unattentively to the speakers,
Reminiscing in my own mind, I thought of how
Quickly those three years had gone by.
I reflect on what I have learned in
My years at this institution who's purpose is
Not to be ministered unto but to minister, and
I realize that college is not just about academia;
It is about you.
It's a place to grow and change, to find out
Who you really are, who you really want to be.
Then you move on.
Some move on before they find themselves,
Others just never move on,
And many succeed in their search for themselves.
As seniors, we look back upon our
Experiences at this place many of us
Have called Home for the last few years and
We prepare ourselves for what lies ahead.
For who we really are.

Susan A. Pineo

GO TO PHEON

"Bearing it All," Volume 96 of the Bridgewater State College Yearbook, was printed by Taylor Publishing Company out of their Dallas, Texas, publishing plant.

Color Senior portraits were taken by Advanced Photographic Services, of Swansea, Massachusetts. Portraits were not accepted from any other studio. This policy was established to ensure consistency with the background as the portraits were printed in color. Candid photography of such events as Convocation and Graduation were also provided by A.P.S., as well as the photos in the Clubs and Organizations section.

Yearbooks were available to all members of the Bridgewater State College community. The ordering process was handled by the Student Activities Office. Distribution was conducted through the Davis Alumni Center. Funding for the Yearbook was through the Student Government Association.
